THE CONFERENCE.

The Late Samoan Consul Thinks
We Will Be Worsted

AS A CONSEQUENCE OF ITS BEING HELD IN BERLIN.

He Tells Why the Secretary of State Was Criticized, and Then Does a Little Criticizing Himself—The Course Mr. Bayard Should Have Pursued, According to Mr.
Sewall's Idea of Things.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Mr. Sewall, late consul general at Samoa, talked freely Sunday in regard to the proposed Samoan conference at Berlin, and, among other things, he said:

"Consider the genesis of the conference it is proposed to renew. It was summoned by our secretary of state; it assembled at our capital on the acknowledged basis of an equality of rights of these three treaty powers, of which we were the first. Its object was the preservation of Samoan autonomy, upon which all our National and commercial interests in Samoa depend.

"While the conference was yet unconcluded, with no notice to this government, German ships came to Samoa and took possession of the islands in violation of the understanding on which the pending negotiations were proceeding. If the conference is to be renewed at all, it should be renewed under conditions as favorable to us as those which attended its initiation. The status ante confereudum should be first restored, and Malietoa, for whose deposition we are morally responsible, should be returned from exile, and it should meet here, where it was interrupted, and where our representative would be free from the peculiar influences now at work at Berlin.

"But, were the suggestions of Mr. Bayard in his letter to the German minister made conditions precedent to the reassembling of the conference, we might even then enter upon the conference with something of our National dignity saved. Mr. Bayard suggested a truce in Samoa; he does not insist upon it. The position maintained in the conference by Mr. Bayard has not, I believe, been criticised. That the independence of the islands should be maintained, and equality of rights of commerce and navigation secured for the subject of the three treaty powers, was agreed upon. Our rights are not enlarged by this, but only confirmed.
But, having secured this recognition of our rights, Mr. Bayard rested.

"And it is because of this—because, pending the conference, he submitted to the violation of these rights—that he has been criticised, even by Mr. Bates, upon whose recommendations Mr. Bayard's entire contention in the conference was based. Mr. Bayard did not resent this action of Germany, accompanied as it was by the ruin of our trade and outrages upon our citizens and flag, as bad as those which have recently stirred the country. It is because he has suffered the violation of those rights which he was the first clearly to assert, and because thus our prestige has been irretrievably weakened in the Pacific, that Mr. Bayard is criticised.

"Had Mr. Bayard, through the president, called the attention of congress and the country to this German action, the same sentiment which is now aroused would long since have averted the distressing condition of affairs that now confront us in Samoa and render difficult, but at the same time necessary, further negotiations. Nobody desires war which is not necessary. Nobody proposes annexation."

Mr. Sewall was asked if he knew anything of Mr. Coleman, our charge d'affaires at Berlin, who is, it is stated, to conduct our negotiations. He replied: "I do not; only that Prince Bismarck speaks highly of him."

Mr. Sewall's Successor.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Consul General Sewall's resignation was received at the state department Saturday.

Col. John S. Mosby is mentioned as a possible successor to ex-Consul General Sewall, under the Harrison administration.

Department of Agriculture.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The president has approved, among others, the bill to enlarge the powers and duties of the department of agriculture, and to create an exclusive department to be known as the department of agriculture.

Mr. Pendleton Will Preside.

BERLIN, Feb. 12.—The health of Minister Pendleton has so far improved that he will preside at the Samoan conference to be held here. The overtures for a conference made on February 7 are attributed to him.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The senate has Brackenridge to be inspector general of the United States army.

Duel in a Saloon.

GRANT CITY, Mo., Feb. 12.—A duel at short range took place here Saturday night between Rullo Walton, a young desperado of twenty-one, and City Marshal J. C. Baldridge. Walton had threatened to kill the marshal, and when the latter met him in a bar-room they opened fire simultaneously. Walton was killed and D. A. Martin, a by-stander, was shot seriously in the arm that the limb had to be amputated. The marshal was not injured.

They Didn't "On With the Dance."

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 12.—News comes from San Jacinto, a little mountain town in the extreme northern part of San Diego county, that an earthquake shook a few days ago was so severe there that a dance in a large hall was broken up, and 200 people present sought safety by jumping through windows. Many were trampled under foot, others were cut by broken glass, but no one was fatally hurt.

Verdict Against a Railroad.

WATERLOO, Iowa, Feb. 12.—In the district court at Eldora Saturday afternoon a verdict of $10,500 was rendered against the Illinois Central railroad. The case grew out of the death of John McDermott, a brakeman, who was killed by falling off a train at Duncombe last spring.

CONSUL BELMONT

Has an Awkward Experience at the Court of Madrid.

NO OFFICIAL NOTIFICATION OF MR.
CURRY'S WITHDRAWAL.

Being Furnished the Spanish Government, They Refuse to Recognize Him—An Ex-United States Consul's Claim of Half a Million Against the Dutch Government.
Cotton Returns.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun sends the following story to his paper:

Mr. Perry Belmont had rather an awkward experience on his arrival at the court of Madrid. When he prepared himself for presentation to the king he was informed from the foreign office that the Spanish government had received no official notification of the withdrawal of Mr. Curry as the United States minister.

The Spanish court is nothing if not formal, and in the absence of this notification the credentials of Mr. Belmont possessed no significance. Under the circumstances it was not good form for Mr. Belmont to remain in Madrid, or, in fact, to appear in public. He therefore withdrew to Seville, and went into retirement—took the black veil, it might be said—until the department of state could forward in formal official style the notification that Mr. Curry had been relieved.

Wants $500,000 Damages.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—The Herald's Washington correspondent telegraphs an account of the claim of ex-United States Consul Oscar Hatfield against the Dutch government for half a million dollars. Mr. Hatfield was the United States consul at Batavia, the Dutch possession in the East Indies. He was also, with the permission of the state department, engaged in private business. In 1887 a Dutch merchant with whom Mr. Hatfield was associated in a very valuable enterprise was supposed to have committed a breach of trust against his partner in a firm established at Batavia. In this concern Mr. Hatfield had no financial interest whatever.

This firm went into bankruptcy and the gentleman above referred to was arrested by the Dutch authorities. A week later Mr.
Hatfield found, to his astonishment, that proceedings had been begun against him also, solely upon the strength of his interest in the mining venture.

Mr. Hatfield was arrested, his correspondence opened and read before delivery, his property and effects seized and sold upon the pretense of debt, proofs of which have never to this day been shown him. No notice whatever was paid to his protests, and he was kept imprisoned for eight or nine months. Mr. Hatfield appealed to the state department at Washington. Secretary Bayard despatched a special officer to Java to investigate and report upon this unparalleled insult to the United States.

This officer sifted the matter to the bottom and established beyond question that Consul Hatfield had been unfairly dealt with. A claim was therefore put in by our minister at The Hague on behalf of Mr. Hatfield for $500,000 damages for losses sustained by Mr.
Hatfield and injury to his character. There seems to be no doubt that this demand will be pushed with all due regard to diplomatic courtesy.

Cotton Statistics.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—The cotton returns of the department of agriculture make the average close of picking six days later than last year on account of later maturity and frequent rains. In many counties in the southwest the crop has not yet been fully harvested. A careful consolidation of the returns makes the proportion marketed 84.3 per cent, the averages of the states being as follows: Virginia, 83; North Carolina, 84; South Carolina, 85; Georgia, 86; Florida, 87; Alabama, 85; Mississippi, 82; Louisiana, 83; Texas, 85; Arkansas, 84; Tennessee, 83.

The staple is shorter than last year and there is more discolored and trashy fibre.
The caterpillar and boll worm have been widely distributed, but their destruction has been greatly limited by insecticides. Seed has been sold at twelve to sixteen cents per bushel, near lines of railroads, mostly by tenants, the proprietors finding it more valuable for feeding and fertilizing purposes.

1, 1812. He was made a cardinal in 1868 and was one of the six suffragan bishops of the Roman pontiff.

Murder Over a Game of Cards.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 12.—Benjamin Brown day night in "Clabber alley," a tough section of the city. The men had quarreled over a game of seven-up in which five cents' worth of beer was at stake.

ON THE YUKON.

White Miners Getting Rich in Polar Gold Mines.

MR. OGILVIE'S EXPLORATIONS IN THE FAR NORTH.

He Met Lord Lonsdale, Who Will Doubtless Attempt to Reach St. Petersburg Via Siberia—The Stories of the Characters of Alaskan Women Relatered By a Canadian Miner.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 12.—A special to the Post from Ottawa, Ont., says:

Your correspondent has interviewed Surveyor William Ogilvie, who has lately returned from his explorations of northern British Columbia, Mackenzie river basin, and the Alaskan frontier districts. He traveled for two years, over fifteen thousand miles in the round trip. The object of the government in sending out the party was to obtain reliable geographical information of the Yukon and Mackenzie districts, from which to settle the Alaskan boundary question, etc.

Ogilvie states that in the most northern districts visited the cold was intense in winter. There were a large number of mining camps on the Yukon and some on the upper Mackenzie, although placers, he thought, did not yield very heavily. There were plenty of Indians around disposed to be quite friendly. Wild beasts abounded.
Outside of the mountain lion and the wolverine there are various kinds of bears.

The explorers met Lord Lonsdale at a northern post of the Hudson Bay company on the Mackenzie river. While the apparent design of the lord is to reach a northern point, he evidently intends to go through Alaska, if possible, and cross the Kamschatka straits into Russian territory, and try and reach St. Petersburg. His party consisted of Esquimaux, Alaska natives and a Russian interpreter.

A letter, dated March 2, 1888, has been received in Ottawa, written by John Kerr, a Canadian miner who has been working for three years on the Upper Yukon. He says that the natives are "tame" and easily managed, but are inveterate thieves; that they are a mixture of Indian and Esquimaux. He and his companions have two dog trains at the camp, the dogs being a cross between a wolverine and an Esquimaux "husky" dog.

The party is doing well and expect to pull out a big pile of gold dust. Outside of their own party they had several natives working for them; clothes were obtained from the trading companies and food was gotten by the natives by hunting and fishing. Salmon abound. They had seen but few white men, mostly Americans and Canadians, all of whom were gold mining.

Kerr says of Alaskan native women that they are, as a rule, slovenly, dirty and lewd.
In his own words: "Talk about squaws, they are ten times worse than the worst squaw. Honor is nothing to them, and I do not believe there is any regular system of marriage. On the contrary they lead a gypsy life—from one man to another, native, Indian, Esquimaux and white." He further says that two of the natives employed by his party had one native woman which both treated as their wife, and all seemed happy and contented.

Alliance to Overthrow Legitimate.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—The World publishes a letter from Cape Haytian, dated February 3, in which it is stated that an important conference was held on January 29, at Monte Christi, San Domingo, between Gen. Hippolyte and Gen. Hereaux, president of San Domingo. Details of this conference has not been given out, but assurances are given that the results of the meeting will be to the great advantage of Gen.
Hippolyte, and that an alliance is being formed which may result in the overthrow of Legitime.

Young Hunter Killed.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Feb. 12.—Albert Tull, the sixteen-year-old son of David Tull, ex-treasurer of this county, was out hunting Saturday, and in climbing over a fence dropped his gun, the hammer striking on a rail and the load taking effect in his head and breast, causing almost instant death.

The loss is estimated at $10,000. A fireman was severely injured.

Experiments with a submarine boat "Le Gymnote," made at Toulon, have been very successful. The boat moves horizontally as well as vertically, and is easily kept at any depth that is desired. It can be run at a speed of from nine to ten knots. The light is good, and respiration easy. Its crew is ordinarily three, but during the experiments five persons were on board. The Revue Scientifique says that the new boat, an invention of Mr. Krobs, is a complete success, and will become of the greatest importance in marine warfare.—Science.

O'BRIEN'S HEALTH

A London Newspaper Creates a Profound Sensation

BY THE ASSERTION THAT HIS RE-COVERY IS VERY IMPROBABLE.

Mr. Balfour Strongly Denies the Charges Made Against the Prison Authorities, and Pronounces Their Authors as Liars.
Balfour to Be Curbed By the Government.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—The Daily News has information that the condition of William O'Brien is such as to render his recovery very improbable. The announcement has filled his friends with anxiety and increased the general indignation at his cruel treatment.

Mr. Balfour, replying to a letter written to him by Mr. Armitage, of Manchester, refers to the party uses in which the Gladstonians have put the matter of the treatment of Mr.
O'Brien in Clonmel jail. He denies charges made against the prison authorities, and denounced their authors as liars.

Mr. Balfour quotes from statements made by Dr. O'Terrell refuting charges of cruelty, and declaring that Mr. O'Brien is comfortable and cheerful.

The Daily News' report has created a profound sensation. In Conservative circles, where Mr. Balfour's denunciation of the charges of cruelty to Mr. O'Brien in Clon-mel prison finds ready belief because of the desire that the facts should be found to be as he represents them, the report of the Irish editor's critical state is not generally credited, but there are still a few influential Tories who are not convinced of the absolute truth of the secretary's representations.

The friends of Mr. O'Brien are extremely active in their endeavors to obtain correct information as to his condition, and official quarters are besieged by anxious inquirers into the truth of the report that he is hopelessly ill. Nor is the feeling of anxiety confined to the members of and sympathizers with the Irish party. Several members of of the ministry are credited with having expressed to friends the opinion that a fatal termination of Mr. O'Brien's imprisonment would not only retard the work contemplated by the cabinet for the benefit of Ireland, but possibly deal a death blow to the present government.

For this reason, if for no other, the ministry are determined to curb Mr. Balfour's manifest inclination, to take advantage of his power to wreak personal vengeance upon the man who, of all others of the Irish parliamentary party, has been most conspicuous in denouncing him in the course of debate, and many of the members of the government are upon the verge of open revolt against a continuance of his policy.

There is no doubt that Mr. Balfour himself feels that he has gone too far, as evidenced by his letter to a Manchester correspondent in which he seeks to ascribe the hue and cry against the barbarous treatment of Mr.
O'Brien to the desire of the Gladstonians to manufacture political capital, but whether he can recover any of his lost ground is a question that can only be decided by the events of the future. If Mr. O'Brien shall survive his imprisonment and regain his health, perhaps he may, but should the prisoner die, the Irish secretaryship will become too hot for him, even if the present government should pull through.

THE CAMP-MEETING CASE.

Opinion of Court of Appeals in the Action of Perkins Against the Maysville Association.

The Court of Appeals recently affirmed the decision of the Lewis Circuit Court in the case of Perkins against the Maysville District Camp-meeting Association. Judge Pryor rendered the opinion of the higher court, which is as follows:

First—A corporation may be made liable for a tort, or even an assault and battery committed by its agents when in discharge of a duty connected with their employment; but to make the corporation liable the act complained of must be within the object of the association.

In this action the plaintiff complains that his property was seized by the defendant, a camp-meeting association chartered by the Legislature. A trespass upon his close is also alleged, but the manner of committing the forcible entry or by whom does not appear. It is also alleged that the President of the corporation prevented persons from being entertained by the plaintiff, and interfered with his trade as a merchant by telling others that he had no right to sell his goods or to entertain them, although on his own premises. Held—That the petition does not state a cause of action. It does not appear that the trespass, if any, was authorized by any act of the corporation as such; and if the President interfered with the plaintiff's trade as alleged, he is personally liable, if any liability exists.

Second—The plaintiff's business house was a stable erected on his own land, within one hundred yards of the place for religious worship, and under a police regulation in defendant's charter designed to prevent the conduct of temporary business houses during the time the defendant's meeting continued, the plaintiff was properly fined in a regular proceeding before a Justice of the Peace.

Stock, Field and Farm.
Hon. John D. Harris, of Madison County, raised 200 acres of tobacco last year.

It is announced that Nebraska is about to start the industry of the manufacture of beet sugar.

The News and Courier (S. C.) thinks it not extravagant to place the "cotton crop of 1888-'89 at 7,500,000 bales, or the largest crop ever made."

The growing wheat in Fleming has stood the winter well, says the Times-Democrat, but the fact is we haven't had much winter yet.

Fruit packed in carbonized wheat barn, according to California fruit growers, keeps fresh longer than when packed in the ordinary way.

An exhibit of Connecticut Havana seed leaf tobacco grown in 1888 has been shipped by some Connecticut growers to the Paris Exposition.

Twelve hundred horses will be sold at public auction at Lexington this week and next. This is the largest number of trotters ever gotten together for sale at one time.

Omaha now asserts its place as the "third packing center" of the United States. Its claim seems to be a good one, based as it is on receipts of 340,489 cattle and 1,253,600 hogs in 1888, and the shipment of 15,060 carloads of meat.

According to a recent estimate the corn exports from the United States for the past six months were $11,400,000 in value, compared with $6,300,000 last year; wheat, $25,900,000, compared with $38,300,000, and wheat flour $23,200,000, compared with $28,400,000.

The Kentucky Trotting-Horse Breeders' Association of Lexington has increased its stakes for next fall's meeting $9,000. It gives $1,000 for three-year-olds, $1,000 for two-year-olds, $1,000 for 2:30 stallions, $1,000 for 2:25 stallions and $5,000 for the 2:20 class free for all.

The New York Sun says: "Apparently one of the most curious phenomena of business is the way that the prices for first class trotting stallions are rising into such surprising figures, notwithstanding the fact that the breeding of trotters has already reached an enormous growth. The more trotters are bred the higher their value seems to go. Not one, but several stallions, have been sold within the last few months for tens of thousands of dollars each, yet none of them had become a great sire. Bell Boy went for $50,000! Sentinel Wilkes for $25,000! And Antevolo has fetched $30,000! If these sales are all as honest as the animals sold, the breeding interest must be in a state of prosperity almost unequalled by any other."

The Only Perfect Remedy
For habitual constipation, dyspepsia, and kindred ills is the famous California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. It strengthens as well as cleanses the system, it is easily taken, and perfectly harmless. For sale in 50 cents and $1.00 bottles.
